

California Marine Life Protection Act Initiative Opportunities for Public Involvement in the South Coast Study Region

The success of the Marine Life Protection Act (MLPA) Initiative depends on the continued involvement of the public. There are a number of ways that members of the public can participate in the process:

Stay Informed

- Sign up for the MLPA Initiative's electronic mailing list
- View live webcasts of ongoing meetings or archived meetings on the MLPA website (<http://www.dfg.ca.gov/mlpa/meetings.asp>)

Provide Input

- Submit formal letters or provide comment at public meetings for the
 - Blue Ribbon Task Force
 - Master Plan Science Advisory Team
 - South Coast Regional Stakeholder Group
 - California Fish and Game Commission
- Submit feedback on documents for comment on the MLPA website
- Participate in public workshops
- Nominate yourself or others to the MLPA South Coast Regional Stakeholder Group (nominations due July 18, 2008)
- Contact a member of the MLPA South Coast Regional Stakeholder Group to express your interests and views
- At any time, submit comments, ideas and suggestions to MLPAComments@resources.ca.gov

Spread the Word

- Sign up to assist with MLPA Initiative outreach to help ensure others in your community are aware of the initiative, upcoming meetings and other public involvement opportunities
